SEVEN YEARS.

The seven years of unrivaled success attesting to have made it a household word throughout the entire quarter of the country. Under the auspices of this great Society, over 1,000,000 dollars have been raised by contributions by beautiful works of art on their walls, and other literary and historical treasures, the greatest benefits derived from becoming members of the Association, and the same are received in a ratio unparallelled with any previous year.

"Cosmopolitan Art Association,"

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Any person can become a member by subscribing twenty dollars, for which sum they will receive one copy of the "Art Journal," and superlative engraving, 20 x 25 inches, mounted.

"Fafstaff Mastering His Recruits."

"The copy, one year, of that elegantly illustrated magazine,"

"The Cosmopolitan Art Journal."

"For contributions, during the season, to

"The Gallery of Painting," 544 Broadway, New York.

In addition to these, there will be given to subscribers, as gratuities premiums, over Five hundred beautiful Works of Art, comprising valuable paintings, portraits, curios, engravings, &c., forming a truly national benefit.

The present engraving, entitled "Fafstaff Mastering His Recruits," is one of the most popular engravings ever published in this country, and done on steel, in fine blue and stipple—its subject is the Justice of the Peacetime, who is shown in his office, seated at his desk, and surrounded by his staff. This copy could not be furnished by the trade for less than $100.

The "Art Journal" is a magnificently illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Curios, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America.

The "Art Journal" is sent to any part of the country by mail, weekly, and postage paid, in a regular postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the Evening of the 21st inst., and the premium will be given to those persons not entitled to a single subscription. Those remitting $20.00, are entitled to five subscriptions to the "Art Journal."

For further particulars apply for a copy of the "Art Journal," pronounced the handsomest magazine in America, containing over 200 pages per number, but which will be sold at 25 cents per number, for the convenience of visitors, or readers of "Fafstaff Mastering His Recruits." Address, J. B. BROWN, Attorney, C. A. S., 22 Broadway, New York.
